

19th ANNUAL ENERGY PSYCHOLOGY CONFERENCE

Beyond Talk Therapy: Tools for Transformation

The Conference for Integrative and Energy Therapies

Main Conference: October 13 to October 15;

Pre-conference workshops: October 12;

Post-conference workshops: October 16.

This is the conference where practitioners and non-practitioners alike gather to integrate modern science and psychotherapy with ancient wisdom, bridging the gap between conventional and alternative therapies.

Come away for a weekend of learning and spiritual processes with hundreds of like-minded professionals and seekers at the Pinnacle Hotel Harbourfront in beautiful downtown Vancouver for this landmark conference. Brought to you by the Canadian Association for Integrative and Energy Therapies (CAIET), this one-of-a-kind event is host to an International gathering of professional and interested lay persons alike.

The exceptional lineup of star presenters provides an excellent opportunity to meet and learn from the best of the best in the field of Comprehensive Energy Psychology.

Among our outstanding keynote speakers and presenters we are excited to welcome Lewis Mehl-Madrona, MD, PhD, Psychiatrist with PhD in Narrative Therapies; Christine Page, MD, Physician, Homeopath and Intuitive healer; Dawson Church, PhD, Author, Researcher, Founder, Soul Medicine Institute David Feinstein PhD, Author and leader in the field of Energy Psychology; and many others.

Feed your intellect, nourish your spirit, and satisfy your professional Continuing Education requirements all in an atmosphere of collegiality, collaboration, compassion, and fun.

Reduced conference fees for members of CAIET, the only Canadian organization for Energy Therapies. Join now at www.caiet.org.
